THE ARMINIUS MINES CRIPPLED BY FIRE

Coolness of Officers and Splendid Work of Men Saved Heavier Loss.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) MINERAL, VA., February 6.—During the high wind storm last night the roof of the boiler and compressor houses at the Arminius (Sulphur) Mines took fire, and both buildings and contents were desand dollars on valuable and costly machinery, and the stoppage of a part of chinery, and the stoppage of a part of the mining work for a time.

But for the coolness and admirable management of the officials, and the men, the whole outfit of buildings would have been burnt. The shaft-house was on fite several times, but was saved by the splendid and daring work of the men.

The mill-house and machinery was saved with great difficulty, and the fire was gotten under control at an early hour this morning, and the work of clearing away of rubbish and wrecked machinery at once begun, and new timbers and material for rebuilding ordered.

Every means has been brought into use to get new machinery in place, new buildings erected, and a full working force under way at the carliest possible moment.

MUTUAL AID SOCIETY HAS ANNUAL REUNION

Interesting Business Meeting of the Miller & Rhoads Organization Followed By Banquet.

The annual meeting of the Miller and Rhoads Employes' Aid Society was held last evening immediately after the close of the store.

The reports of the various officers showed the society to be in a flourishing condition and that a wast amount of good was being done, over eight hundred dollars being paid out in benefits during the past year and regular visitations made to members who were sick.

The following officers and directors were elected to serve for one year: President.

Mr. W. L. Austin; Vice-President, Mr. J. R. Weymouth; Secretary, Mr. J. Russell Wills; Treasurer, Mr. R. H. Wills. These gentlemen, in addition to the following named members, constitute the board of directors: Mr. C. T. Corling, Mr. H. K. Malone, Mr. R. H. Scott. Mr. L. O. Miller, Mrs. A. J. Jeffries and Miss Marion Carney.

Short speeches were made by Mr. Miller and Mr. Rhoads, of the firm, and by several of the outgoing and incoming officers. At the conclusion of the business meeting, an adjournment was taken to the third floor, where covers had been laid for the entire membership of the society, and an elegant supper was served. Following the supper a high class musical entertainment was provided, the participants being members of the aid society. Among the numbers were baritone solos by Messrs, A. B. White and J. A. Jones, a bass solo by Mr. Eugene Kass, a tenor solo by Miss Cassie Tucker, and a vocal duet by Misses Lucas and Williams, and a quarrette composed of Messrs. Selvert, White, Jones and Austin. lams, and a quartette composed Mossrs. Gebhardt and Gill rendered several instrumental duets on the mandolin and plano, which, with a plano solo by Mr. Gill, were highly appreciated. Recitations by Misses Vernelle Tucker and Carrie Tucker and "stunts" by Mr. Fitzhugh Shields closed the evening's programme.

hugh Shields closed the evening's programme.

The occasion was voted a thoroughly enjoyable one by everybody present. The thanks of the society are due to the Cable Plano Company, who kindly tendered the use of a plano, and to Mr. L. L. Gill, not an employe of the store, who played the accompaniment for Mr. Gebhard. The Aid Society of Miller and Rhoads employes was organized two years ago, and was a success from its inception. It is believed to be the only one in a retail dry goods store in this section of the country.

Splendid Revival Services.

Rev E. L. Powell, of Louisville, Ky., preached again last night in the revival services in progress at the West End Christian Church, to an audience that taxed the capacity of the biulding. These audiences make it necessary to change at once, the place of meeting, so that the services of to-night and for the next ten days to come, will be held in the Grove Avenue Baptist Church. Not only the Disciples of Christ in the West End, but those of all the city, are taking an active interest in the meeting, for Dr. Powell is a Virginian and well-known to the Disciples in the State Marshall Street and Seventh Street Christian Churches adjourn their prayer meetings to-night to have part in the meeting at Grove Avenue.

Dr. Powell spake last night on "The Plum.

The fact that the President has sent to the Senate the nomination of Mr. R. E. Cabell to be postmaster of Richmond has not stopped the discussion of the mater nor has it allayed all doubt as to who will be the next postmaster of Richmond.

Mr. Roosevelt himself has said that when Mr. Cabell's name was first mentioned to him be thought it was Mr. James Branch Cabell, the novelist, and he was willing to appoint him.

A few days ago the last named Mr. Cabell received an invitation from the President to visit him at the White House. Mr. Cabell, accompanied by his nother, Mrs. Annie B. Cabell, left here Monday night for Washington.

Mr. Cabell and his mother stopped at the Raleigh and yesterday the brilliant young author spent quite a while at the White House. It was, however, stated that the Richmond postmastership had nothing to do with the visit and that the subject was not mentioned.

Mr. Royall E. Cabell, who was named by the President for the postmastership, left here yesterday for Wheeling, W. Va., to attend to private business. Presumably he went through Washington, but whether he stopped or not is not known here.

DR. WHITE'S ASSAILANT

J. L. White, who was murderously asno developments warranting an arrest no developments warranting an arrest beyond the two men taken in cus-tody at a late hour last night. One of these is a white man, who gives his name as Hopkins, from Lowry, Va. He was arrested at a water tank one-half mile from the passenger station here, and is held by the Mayor as a suspiciose char-acter. Another white man escaped the officers after a long chase, and before a hot fire of builets. The other arrest is that of a negro, made last night. His is that of a negro, made last night. His name is Morris Glover, but there seems little or no evidence upon which he can be held.

The Prince Edward board of supervisors and the Town Council to-day offered rewards of $150 each for the capture and conviction of the guilty party, affd it is reported that the family of Dr. White will add liberally to theze.
